Provide drawing materials and invite your child to draw a bird that he saw. When he is finished, ask him to tell you about it. Share what you notice about the bird, too—for example, the colors of the feathers or the shape of its beak.